

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM FOR BLACK YOUTH, INDIGENOUS YOUTH, AND YOUTH OF COLOUR

Outward Bound Canada offers scholarships for youth who identify as Black, Indigenous (First Nations, Métis or Inuit) or as a Person of Colour, who demonstrate an interest in developing their leadership skills, in efforts to positively impact and give back to their community. We strive to provide programs across the country that offer a supportive and inclusive environment from diverse social, cultural and economic backgrounds, and for those facing a variety of barriers to getting outdoors. Our mission is to cultivate resilience, leadership, connections and compassion through inspiring and challenging journeys of discovery in the natural world. Our vision is for a healthy, resilient society formed through lasting connections to self, others and the natural world. Our full scholarships are made possible by our generous donors like the RBC Foundation and the Stuart Horne Family Foundation.

Eligibility Requirements

- Applicant must be between 12–19 years of age and currently residing in Canada.
- Applicant must demonstrate their desire to continue building their leadership capacity.
- Applicant must understand the expectations of the program and provide informed consent.
- Applicant must be interested and motivated to participate in the Outward Bound program.

How to Apply

1. Apply online during the registration process when you sign up for your course and complete all required forms. Alternatively, you can complete the attached package by sending it back to us by email or fax. If you need further assistance to complete the application, please email or call us to discuss other options.
2. You may be requested to provide additional information or documentation, and both the applicant and parent/guardian will be asked to participate in a phone call to learn more about the program.
3. You will receive notification of being awarded the scholarship by email. You will be requested to sign a Funding Agreement to confirm your commitment. If your application is not approved, you will have the option to stay in the course and pay the full balance or switch courses.

6. What else would you like us to know about you or your application?

Initial Here	Upon acceptance to the course and response to your funding application, you will have the opportunity to decide if you would like to accept the funding and attend the course, or decline the offer. I understand that if I choose to accept, I will be required to sign a Funding Agreement to confirm my commitment to the course.
Initial Here	Upon acceptance of the offer, I understand that I will be asked to participate in a short survey before and after the course. This survey is anonymous and helps to ensure that the RBC Foundation can understand the impact of their support.
Initial Here	At the end of the course, we would be very thankful if recipients could join us in thanking the generous donors of the Youth Access Fund by writing a letter. Sometimes, we share select quotes from your letter with other partners in efforts to encourage more people to donate and to encourage more youth to sign up. We will always remove your name and identifying details to respect your privacy. I understand that, after my course, I can choose to write a letter of thanks to the scholarship donors that may be shared with the donors and other OBC supporters.
